To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Lisa Smith. We worked together in the Sony Pictures International Production Department at Graphic Orb, Inc. for one-and-a-half years. During her tenure as a production artist she showed considerable zeal and dedication.

During Lisa's service with us I interacted with her on a daily basis and depended on her to share the day-to-day production work for our department. Very much a team player, she is always enthusiastic. She always has a smile on her face and a desire to learn more, especially about graphic design.

In closing, I believe she will do a fine job in any venture she attempts in the future. I feel confident she would be an asset to your organization.

Sincerely,

Marleigh Riggins
